Al fresco dining is an essential Austin undertaking,.. our neighborhood eatery offers an exemplary patio space for dining on fresh seafood catches and unexpected delicacies like blue cheese beignets, duck confit crepes, and top-notch caviar.

Named after our South 1st Street address, 1417 also offers an excellent weekend brunch featuring everything from raw bar specialties to pastries, quiches, and stacked burgers. And with a full bar and cocktail program — and an impressive wine selection — lounging here is an easy, breezy way to spend any night of the week.
