ANDIAMO CATERING ANNOUNCES EXCLUSIVE CATERING PARTNERSHIP WITH ST. JOHN'S BANQUET CENTER IN SOUTHFIELD

Detroit-based culinary leader expands distinguished venue roster with newly renovated Southfield landmark...

SOUTHFIELD, MI — Andiamo Catering and Event Management, Metro Detroit's premier full-service caterer, proudly announces its new exclusive catering partnership with St. John's Banquet Center in Southfield, Michigan.

A pillar of Detroit's dining scene since 1989, Andiamo Catering has built a distinguished history of delivering exquisite cuisine and impeccable service at prestigious off-premise venues and landmark events including the Detroit Grand Prix, Michigan Central Station and the State Savings Bank. While renowned for its authentic Italian heritage, Andiamo offers a rich variety of global cuisines, fully customizable menus, and complete full-service event management for social and corporate gatherings of any size or style. With a reputation for white-glove service and scratch-made cuisine, Andiamo's culinary and event teams handle everything from intimate rehearsal dinners to galas exceeding 1,000 guests.

The partnership adds the newly renovated St. John's Banquet Center to Andiamo's distinguished list of venue partners. Located at 22001 Northwestern Hwy, St. John's features a 16,000 sq. ft. Grand Ballroom accommodating up to 600 guests, along with flexible breakout spaces ideal for weddings, mitzvahs, conferences, and nonprofit galas. The recent multimillion-dollar renovation modernized the property with upgraded lighting, audio-visual capabilities, and refined finishes while preserving its timeless elegance.

"We are honored to partner with St. John's," said Stewart Davidson, co-owner of Andiamo Catering. "We look forward to creating exceptional experiences in their newly renovated Grand Ballroom and serving this wonderful community. It's a stunning property in an outstanding location that is perfect for both social and corporate events. We are truly excited about the future of this partnership."

Through this partnership, clients booking St. John's will receive Andiamo's award-winning cuisine, custom menu design, and end-to-end event coordination as the venue's exclusive catering partner.
