

San Diego

RESTAURANT Guide

2018

Dirty Birds team celebrates being awarded "Best Wings in San Diego" - 6 years in a row!

COURTESY OF
NAUTILUS TAVERN

For the burgers, sink those chompers into these buns.

Nautilus Tavern (6830 La Jolla Blvd., La Jolla)

This cozy La Jolla pub has chill vibes and hip decor, almost like a grown-up version of a PB Bar & Grill. And luckily they've got a legit tasty burger in its Windansea Burger. The simple burger is flavorful and, admittedly, not too involved. Just meat, cheese, lettuce, onion on a buttery brioche bun that adds a touch of sweet to the savory goodness. There's not a lot to it and not a lot needed to make it worth the drive up or down the coast. It's tasty and they offer an option of sides the length of a CVS receipt. Tater tots, fries, baked beans—yeah it's there. I bet you could even stuff them in the burger if you're feeling wild. Go on then! It should also be noted that its margaritas are delicious and dangerous.

nautilustavern.com