

10 Chicago Restaurants With Romantic Dinner Specials for Valentine's Day 2022

By: Zoë Searle | Food & Drink Holiday

Love is in the air and Valentine's Day right around the corner, but you're still searching for the right place to take your sweetheart. Worry no more, because Chicago's finest chefs and craftiest curators have put together some truly romantic dinner specials that are sure to impress.

From vegan take-home offerings to four-course meals, classic American favorites and international flavors, these 10 Chicago restaurants are doing Valentine's Day to the nines. All you have to do is dress up nice and make a reservation early. These restaurants may have different COVID-19 regulations, so please look for more information on each location's websites.

The Duplex

3137 W Logan Blvd. / Website

Located in the heart of Logan Square, the Duplex invites you and your partner to enjoy a delicious cocktail, specially made for the holiday and filled with love. The "Sweetest Taboo" is a limited-edition drink prepared just in time for Valentine's Day. The cocktail is made with plantation pineapple, Mr. Black coffee liqueur, caramel Irish cream, espresso, vanilla syrup and chocolate ganache. It is then topped with a strawberry marshmallow that has been hand-dipped in chocolate and is covered in edible glitter. Book your reservations through Tock today.

