Instead of operating as a traditional restaurant and lounge, the Duplex is a Logan Square concept that plans to rotate chefs and menus every six months. Starting Nov. 3, the lineup will feature burger specialist Space Cow and modern Korean cuisine courtesy of 2 Korean Girls. For brunch, the menu is full of hits like a lobster omelet, banana pecan pancakes, tequila-infused French toast, and a fried chicken and gravy sandwich. Bottomless mimosa kits are available for $40.
