

10 Best Places to Get Breakfast & Brunch in Logan Square

As one of Chicago's most popping hoods with diverse art, music, community, and culture, it's no surprise you'll also find great grub in Logan Square. A good breakfast or brunch always starts the day off right and Logan Square is chock-full of delicious options – so many, in fact, that it would take you until dinner time to choose where to go. So we did the grunt work for you and narrowed it down to the 10 best places for breakfast & brunch in Logan Square. Tell me: are you team omelette or team egg benedict?

The Duplex

3137 W Logan Blvd, Chicago, IL 60647

We tried The Duplex a few months ago and are now officially obsessed with their pork belly egg benedict! Pork belly and poached egg on a biscuit, drizzled in their house chipotle hollandaise sauce. They also have a killer bloody mary with real beef jerky, and delicious mimosas at your fingertip. Come check out their full brunch menu next time you're planning a weekend in Logan Square!
