Brunch in the South is getting a plant-based makeover. At Coco Bistro & Bar in Chapel Hill, NC, the new plant-based brunch menu includes familiar dishes such as fluffy pancakes and breakfast burritos, as well as unique offerings such as Pesto Florentine, Breakfast Grilled Cheese Sandwiches, and Caramel Apple Turnovers.

“Probably the number one thing we hear from our customers is that they cannot believe our food is vegan,” Tamara Lackey, the co-owner, said in a statement.

The menu also features health-focused options such as the Ultimate Avocado Toast and Chia Pudding Parfait, alongside an expanded drink menu with brunch cocktails and zero-proof options.

More vegan brunch is on the way to Miami later this month when James Beard nominated chef Jeremy Ford showcases plant-based dishes at the Food Network South Beach Wine & Food Festival.

On February 25, Ford will feature vegan creations, including a Coconut Flan with Tropical Fruit Salsa and a Roasted Garlic and Chive Whipped Cream Cheese Toast with Tomatoes and Herbs—dishes made to highlight the versatility of Violife’s dairy-free cheeses.
