

Sen Restaurant Hosts 30th Anniversary Bash

Celebrating its 30th anniversary, Sen Restaurant's owner Jesse Matsuoka hosted its first Japanese Matsuri Festival in Sag Harbor. The festival provided live performances, including traditional Japanese drumming, martial arts demonstrations and Koto instrumental music. Guests engaged in calligraphy, face painting, origami and authentic Japanese games. The event featured food tastings at various booths, highlighted by a whole tuna cutting showcase with complimentary samples. There was also a VIP cocktail garden, featuring a DJ, a traditional Kagamibiraki sake barrel ceremony, and private tastings.

PHOTOS BY ROB RICH

Lynn Matsuoka, Sag Harbor Mayor Thomas Gardella, SEN Owners Tora and Jesse Matsuoka

Junko and Larry Fisher

Japanese Calligraphy by Tszuko Helton and Akihiko Urashi

Kate Jones, Michael Carrazza, Lindsay McNeill

Jeff Rasnick, Kiera Martin, Sheily Ruiz, Stacey Stumps, Siqui Wang

SEN Staff Members

Rhodi Winchell, John and Michaley Nill, Peter Vazari, Emily Nill

Jason and Vivian Carey, Roman Roth, Antonella Bertello

Hiroko and Gerard Senese

Garrett, Theo, Paola and Cassius Lowe

Iyla, Julia and Odin Lafferty

Eric, Frida, Leonna and Wendy Bode

Dennis Ferrando, Mariana Gabeles, Mark and Denise McRedmond, Frank Quevedo

Carlos and Eva Garcia, Norma Escobar, Annabelle Rene

Athanasios Frangakis, Angela Verrett, Mike Byrne, Edward Alava

Anja Breden, Kristina Cardenas

Evelyn Ranunno

Owen Sweeney, Scott Soobodnyak

Renge Sharhi

Nico and James McMahon

Neil Simon, Matt Manza, Irwin Mensch, Jesse and Tora Matsuoka